MARIN SUMMER THEATER

What Is It?

Marin Summer Theater (MST) is an evening program for students of performing arts between the ages of 13 and 23 and includes actors, singers, dancers, musicians, assistant directors, designers, technicians, and crew. In 2010 MST will present CHICAGO (a musical), Rosencrantz & Guildenstern Are Dead (a comedy) and Some Enchanted Evening – The Songs and Dance of Rodgers and Hammerstein (a song and dance review). The program will run June 14-Aug. 1.

MST is sponsored by San Marin Music Boosters with valuable support from San Marin High School and the Novato Unified School District.

Who Can Participate?

MST is open to any student between the ages of 12 and 23 that is serious about the performing arts. For on-stage performers, enrollment in the program is subject to application, audition and a tuition fee of $325.

For assistant directors, choreographers, designers, technicians and crew enrollment is subject to application and interview. Applications for all participants are available at www.marinsummertheater.org.

Which Shows Can I Be In?

Students can apply for one, two or all three shows. Rehearsals will be scheduled so that students can participate in as many shows as they are cast. For performers, the tuition fee will remain $325 regardless of the number of shows a student is cast in.
